

INFORMATION FOR PANEL MEMBERS

ORAL PRESENTATIONS 5 +5 min

The presentation is limited to 6 slides and should be presented in a maximum of 5 minutes and 5 minutes for discussion. The following information is sent to the presenters in advance.

Slide 1 should contain the abstract title, list of authors and affiliations only.

Slide 2-5 should contain a brief introduction and clearly stated hypothesis if deemed necessary, as well as results from the abstract, preferably as figures and/or tables.

Slide 6 should contain summary and/or conclusion(s) in bullet points.

Every slide (all 6 in every presentation) must be clearly labeled with the abstract number in the top left corner. This number will be available and provided upon confirmed acceptance of the abstract.

Presentations have been sent to HeartSymposium@gmail.com in advance

Your task will be to judge the presentation and pick the top three including a winner. A price of NOK 5000,- for the winner will be awarded in each session.

NOTE: The winner in each session will also be asked to give their 5 min presentation during the last session of the main program. In order to participate in the competition for best presentation, the presenter must be available for this session on Friday.

EVALUATION

- Each panel has one panel leader, which is responsible for organizing the evaluation.
- The moderators of the session should introduce the panel at the start of the event
- The panel leader should handle the result (top three presentations and the winner) to Kåre-Olav Stensløykken before the dinner on Thursday.
- Presentations will be evaluated based on
 - 1) Novelty of conclusions
 - 2) Quality of data
 - 3) Clarity of presentation
- The organization of the evaluation is up to the panel leader. Each panel members should hand in the individual score sheet to the panel leader. The scoring can be summed up by the leader based on the individual score, or it may be discussed in a panel meeting after the session.
